

MAC Education Centre

Name: _____

Date: _____

A. Plurals and Singular

i. Give the correct plural form of the following nouns.

1. axe	axes	2. valley	valleys
3. fly	flies	4. she	they
5. taxi	taxis	6. roof	roofs
7. bookcase	bookcases	8. workman	workmen
9. gas	gases	10. half	halves
11. child	children	12. tooth	teeth
13. body	bodies	14. leaf	leaves
15. army	armies	16. ferry	ferries
17. goose	geese	18. mouse	mice
19. ox	oxen	20. lady	ladies
21. himself	themselves	22. sheep	sheep
23. dress	dresses	24. thief	thieves

ii. Rewrite the sentences by changing the singular quantifiers into plurals.

1. a glass of water	glasses of water
2. a loaf of bread	loaves of bread
3. a bar of chocolate	bars of chocolates
4. a bunch of flowers	bunches of flowers
5. a gang of robbers	gangs of robbers
6. a box of matches	boxes of matches

iii. Change the nouns / pronouns to plural. Make other grammatical changes if necessary.

1. The saleslady forgot the price of the dress.

The salesladies forgot the prices of the dresses.

2. A daisy is a gorgeous flower.

Daisies are gorgeous flowers.

3. My foot was hurt last week and is now well.

My feet were hurt last week and are now well.

4. The tail of a fox is called a brush.

The tails of foxes are called brushes.

5. The child's hand needs a bandage.

The children's hands need bandages.

6. There is a glass on the shelf.

There are glasses on the shelves.

7. My home is made of wood.

My homes are made of wood.

8. I saw myself in the mirror.

We saw ourselves in the mirrors.

9. That is a Spanish dictionary.

Those are Spanish dictionaries.

10. The sheep is drinking milk.

The sheep are drinking milk.

iv. Rewrite the following sentences by changing the words in the brackets from singular to plural.

1. The (cat) ran around the (pole).

The cats ran around the poles.

2. Please put the (book) on the (bookcase).

Please put the books on the bookcases.

3. Please give the (candy) to the (child)

Please give the candies to the children.

4. Please get me the (knife) and (fork).

Please get me the knives and forks.

5. Please don't forget the (ticket) and your invitation (card).

Please don't forget the tickets and your invitation cards.

6. Please wash the (peach) and the (potato).

Please wash the peaches and the potatoes.

7. The young (gentleman) is standing next to the gorgeous (lady).

The young gentlemen are standing next to the gorgeous ladies.

8. The (thief) took away the expensive (watch).

The thieves took away the expensive watches.

9. Please don't put the (mango) and the (tomato) together.

Please don't put the mangoes and the tomatoes together.

10. Please tell me the (name) of the (city).

Please tell me the names of the cities.

11. We asked the rude (man) to get off the (minibus).

We asked the rude men to get off the minibuses.

12. I bought the (dress) for my (cousin).

I bought the dresses for my cousins.

13. Please don't put the (leaf) in the (glass).

Please don't put the leaves in the glasses.

B. Prepositions

- 1 This table was made by MAC.

(The name of the person / company that made the object).

- 2 This table was made in Vietnam.

(The country / city where the table was made.)

- 3 This table is made of wood.

(The materials used to make an object have not completely changed and you can still see what they are).

- 4 Paper is made from wood.

(The materials used to make an object have changed significantly and cannot be recognised).

- 5 I will bring a book for you.

- 6 I will bring a book (along) with me. / I will bring a book along.

- 7 I aim to become / aim at becoming the best version of myself.

(Someone aims to do something / aims at doing something).

- 8 The event is aimed at raising money for the needs.

(An action is aimed at doing something).

i. Fill in the blanks with the correct prepositions (or adverb particles) from the table above.

1. The jacket made of wool is made by the company

Apex. It was made in France.

2. These bookmarks made of paper and string are handmade by the students of class 5S. The students aim to sell one hundreds of these at the school funfair, which is aimed at raising money for Ukraine.

3. A: Are you coming to my farewell party alone or are you bringing your sister along?

B: My sister is coming with me. We'll bring some food

(along) with us. We'll also bring a lovely present for you.

4. It is believed that cheese, which is made from milk, was first made in Poland more than a thousand years ago.

ii. Gaby's parents are reading a flyer. Fill in the blanks with the correct prepositions (or adverb particles).

[1] New Collection

JS Home has just launched a new series of bedroom furniture which aims (1) to bring the beauty of nature into your home while reducing pollution to the environment. The Eco Home series consists (2) of beds, cupboards and wardrobes that are made (3) of wood. The wood is taken from sustainable forests. Visit our shops today before they are sold (4) out! We look forward (5) to seeing you!

[2] Our Promise

When our founder, Miss Rose Park, set (6) up JS Home (7) in 2009, she wanted to make customer satisfaction and charity work her company's top priority. All of our furniture is designed and made (8) in Australia. All products made (9) by JS Home are guaranteed for ten years. In addition, we will donate 5% of your purchase to Children's Future, a charity aimed (10) at raising funds to help pay (11) for the education of needy children in the third world countries.

[3] Promotions

Have you ever heard (12) of wine made (13) from pineapples? We're giving away ten bottles of pineapple wine that is made (14) in Korea to the first ten customers who spend over 5,000! What's more, if you spend above $10,000, a designer coffee table made (15) of glass is yours for free!

Please bring this flyer (16) along to claim your gifts.