

i. Fill in the blanks with the correct plural form using the words in the brackets.

1. Mother bought some oranges (orange) yesterday.
2. Paul has two brothers (brother) in Canada.
3. We have many friends (friend) in France.
4. Little Jim can read some Chinese words (word).
5. Ollie has made many enemies (enemy) for himself.
6. Dr. Chiu visited some large cities (city) last year.
7. Please can you give me some nails
(nail)?
8. We are going to grow some roses
(rose) in the garden.
9. Please put these two umbrellas (umbrella) in the cupboard.
10. That fire burned down some old trees (tree).
11. I folded fish (fish) with the paper.
12. We saw some swimmers (swimmer) at the beach.
13. That evil man married two wives (wife).
14. That big fire killed four firemen (fireman.)
15. We saw many big flies (fly) on the wall.

i. Fill in the blanks with the correct prepositions (or adverb particles from the table above.

1. My mother spends a lot of time looking after her garden.
2. The owner has promised to look into my complaint.
3. Your tooth has been hurting for a few days. I think that the dentist should look at it.
4. I always look through all of the questions in my exam paper before I start answering them.
5. When I was young, my grandma looked after me while my parents were at work. I remember always looking forward to listening to his stories about his adventures.